About Us

Paras Dyeing And Printing Mills, also popular for brand EVOLove in the market is a reputable manufacturer & exporter that with its vast product line is geared to respond promptly and dynamically to ever changing needs of Indian and global customers.

Making fabrics and garments especially meant for women is the specialty of our client centric company. As such, our range of Ladies Pajama, Ladies Cotton Pajama, Ladies Tank Top, Ladies Shorts, etc., is marketed in different designs, styles, patterns, etc., and these parameters can be altered as per preferences of buyers. In addition to being a leading garment producer, we are also reigning strong as a fabric manufacturer specializing in a host of Textile Designing to produce end-to-end manufacturing services. We can offer services related to rotary screen printing and more.

We have attained industry benchmarks because of a modern infrastructural setup, which is ably steered by our competent team. Empowered by our technological prowess and team strength, we are offering a customer friendly range of fabrics and garments for women not only in India but across the USA, Gulf countries and in many European countries. We also owe our success to our mentor, Mr. Anand Golcha, whose expertise in the Textile and Apparel industry is unrivalled. His excellence in business is also a strong reason behind our wide popularity, worldwide.
